

Proposal Submission Information:

1

Proposals require the contact information of each presenter/author. Such as, email address, phone number, etc.

Authors/presenters will be required to submit a brief, biosketch. This should include areas of interests for research, professional occupation, roles served within the field of Family Science, educational attainment, and any other relevant professional information and not exceed 100 words.

2

3

Proposal submissions should include a brief abstract of the work that plans to be presented. This should be introductory information about the study or project and should not exceed 500 words.

Additional information about the proposed presentation will be required, such as: approximately how long it will take present the information and what form of proposal is desired (poster, round table, workshop, etc.).

4
